

Assessment-4

A Weather App

Get your feet wet with React Native by building a weather app allows the user to input their location and grabs weather data from a third party API.

things to be assessed

- component based architecture
- stylesheet
- code organisation
- best practices on design and performance use this api provider for above assessment

<http://openweathermap.org/>